THE LOGICAL SONG

- RICK DAVIES / ROGER HODGSON

INTRO

(BASS)

VERSE

When I was young, — it seemed that sent me a — way — to teach me watch what you say — or they'll be Sax solo

life was so won-der-ful,
how to be — sen-si-ble,
call-ing you a rad-i-cal,

a mir-a-cle,
log-i-cal,
a lib-er-al,

oh, it was beau-ti-ful,
oh, — re-spon-si-ble,
oh, — fa-nat-i-cal,

mag-i-cal.
prac-ti-cal.
crim-i-nal.

And all the birds in the trees, — well, they'd be sing-ing so hap-pi-ly,
And then they showed me a world — where I could be so de-pend-a-ble,
Oh, won't you sign up your name; — we'd like to feel you're ac-cept-a-ble,

oh, joy-ful-ly,
oh, clin-i-cal,
re-spect-a-ble,

oh, play-ful-ly watch-ing me.
oh, in-tel-lec-tu-al, cyn-i-cal.
oh, — pre-sent-a-ble. A veg-'ta-ble!

CHORUS

But then they

There are times —
But at night, — }

when all

the world's — a — sleep, —

the ques — tions run —

{ too
so }

for such — a sim — ple man. —

Bb-7 Db/Ab Eb

Won't you please, please tell me what we've learned?

A-7b5/Eb Abmaj7/Eb

I know it sounds absurd; please

Db F-/C To Bb-7 Db/Ab Db

tell me who I am.

F-/C Bb-7 Db/Ab D.S. AL (TAKE REPEAT)

I said, now

Db/Ab Db F-/C Bb-7 Db/Ab Db

Who I am, who I am,

F-/C Bb-7 Db/Ab Db F-/C Bb-7

who I am.
